Tex. Farm Bureau Asks Aid From President

WACO—The Texas Farm Bureau Federation asked President Eisenhower June 18 to "give serious consideration" to five proposals designed to alleviate the hardship suffered by livestock producers in the drought-stricken area of the state.

In a telegram to the chief executive, the TFBF board in session in Waco requested that immediate emergency measures be instituted to "relieve this drastic situation." The message, signed by President J. Walter Hammond, contained the following proposals:

1. Provide through existing channels, or otherwise, a system of credit to enable livestock producers to maintain possession of foundation herds.

2. Provide necessary long term credit for essential feed.

3. Make available surplus CCC foodstuffs at prices as low as those offered to foreign countries.

4. That the United States Department of Agriculture initiate a beef-purchase and promotion program that will restore confidence and strengthen the market and tide the industry over this emergency.

The telegram also urged that a "thorough investigation be made of the disparity between producer and consumer prices" by Agriculture Secretary Benson's Livestock Advisory Committee which was to meet June 20 in Chicago.

The directors stated that livestock producers and credit agencies in this state "prepare for ordinary droughts, but this unprecedented drought has not only depleted ranges of forages, but has also depleted the sources of credit."

The telegram added that the situation has become so drastic that it has caused a near panic in the movement of livestock to market.

"We feel that this situation is temporary, but that if not halted immediately, will result in the forced sale of breeding herds which would eventually be reflected in higher prices to consumers. In addition, it could wreck the economy in a vast livestock-growing area," the telegram stated.

HONDO, CASTROVILLE STORES CLOSE JULY 4

The Chamber of Commerce has announced that the Retail Merchants in Hondo will be closed on July 4th in compliance with an agreement made in January.

In Castroville, J. F. Schott and Son, Haby and Mann, Frank J. Keller and L. M. Tondre will close for the national holiday also.

A three-point program to relieve the disastrous drought situation in Medina County has been recommended by the Medina County Farm Bureau in Hondo, and that organization, in cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce, wired Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson of its recommendations on Friday, the 19th of June, 1953.

In conjunction with other Chambers of Commerce in the drought-stricken area, Uvalde, Crystal City, Gonzales and other local groups have called for an emergency program by the Department of Agriculture which would allow ranchers to purchase surplus government feeds from the government, extend more liberal credit to ranchmen, and help eliminate the surplus of beef by slaughtering two million or more head of cattle by the USDA.

The Southwestern Cattle Raisers' Association formerly opposed aid from the government. However, the situation has become so serious that immediate relief is necessary, not only here but in other drought areas in Texas and other western states.

The drought condition to the west has made it necessary for cattle raisers to sell their livestock when the pasture is gone, and the flood of animals to the market has had a demoralizing effect. Fat calves today are often bringing only 10 cents a pound, even if a buyer can be found, and the market is dangerously low on cows.

Other Chambers in the drought area are expected to request action of this type, some banks and the PCA have added their endorsements.

Reprinted here is a copy of the letter sent by the Board of Directors of the Medina County Farm Bureau to the Secretary of Agriculture, Ezra T. Benson, in Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Benson: We recommend and request your consideration of the following 3 point program to relieve the disastrous drought situation in this entire area and the demoralization of the cattle market.

FIRST - We request that this entire area, where we are suffering the most prolonged and severe drought in recorded history, be declared a drought disaster area, and that we become eligible to buy proteins and other surplus feeds presently held in storage by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

SECOND - That the Government take the necessary steps to provide an easy credit system for those engaged in agriculture in the drought area to enable them to stay in business.

THIRD - That the U. S. Department of Agriculture initiate a program to purchase cows in the drought disaster area and can and store the meat for future use in school lunch rooms and similar programs. We feel this is necessary to prevent the complete demoralization of the cattle market.

We urge immediate action be taken on this recommendation. BOARD OF DIRECTORS Medina County Farm Bureau Hondo, Texas.

Completion Of Hwy. 173 In Sight

The Texas Highway Commission heard from Medina, Kerr and Bandera counties Tuesday, when representatives of the three appeared to urge the completion of Highway 173 north to Kerrville from its present terminal point on Highway 90 just east of Hondo.

Judge A. H. Rothe and the county commissioners made the trip to Austin from Medina County, and upon returning, report that things look favorable.

The three counties have agreed to regard the extension of 173 as an area project, and will work together on plans. It may be two or three years before the road is completed, but work is expected to be directed toward that end by all three counties. Right of way and fencing will be the first thing.

Rig Accident Fatal To Wildcatter

On June 16th, Tuesday, a rig collapsed at the Melvin L. Rossman No. 1 A. W. Goodenough wildcat two miles northeast of Bandera, and in Bandera County, taking the life of Richard Crawford, a Medina roughneck.

Crawford was hit by the crown block. The crew had stuck drill pipe around 2,900 feet while fishing for a sidewall core gun, and the gin pole snapped when the drill pipe gave way suddenly, officials of Stan-Ross Production Company, owners of the rig, said.

The motor and drawworks were not damaged in the accident. The wildcat was at 5,510 feet, preparing to take drillstem test at 4,300-510 feet.

OLD TAYLOR WELL BACK IN PRODUCTION

One of the oldest oil fields in Medina County has recently been brought back into production, and is currently producing about 18 barrels daily. It is the Taylor-Una field located about 4 miles south and a little west of Hondo, on land that once belonged to R. J. Taylor, and is now the property of Otto Mainz of San Antonio, and is under lease to the Grimes Electric Company of Austin. Toby Taylor is in charge of pumping now.

Back in 1924, the original discovery well produced 300 barrels a day, at a depth of 350 feet. The oil rose to within 90 feet of the surface, and it was hard to lower the level. The present discovery brought in oil at 265 feet, and others go to 315. The three wells that are now producing have a 26 barrel daily allowable.

During the ten years that the field was pumped the first time, 166,000 barrels of oil were produced. There were six producers then, and one gas well that supplied fuel for the pumps. Electricity is now being used for the pumps, which run 23 hours a day. Time clock shut them down for the 11 A. M. to 12 noon period.

The 19 gravity oil is pumped into a settling tank, where the oil rises on top of the water. The water is drained off into a slush pit, and the crude goes into another storage tank. Every few days a truck loads for hauling to Easter States Petroleum Company, a Houston refiner.

According to Toby Taylor, more drilling is scheduled for the near future, and production is expected to increase. No chemical treatments have been used on this field.

August Kothman of Austin was the driller on the last three wells.

PARKS

By Bill Berger

You are a long way from there is nothing better than to give your spirits an uplift. The next best is a copy of your old home-paper, and during those weeks when a letter doesn't keep you in touch—times even more so than long ago I was reading a my old home paper, looking for the news letters from the county, and noticed a little item like this.

Men are tearing down the farm on the J. E. Atkins and are building an improved shed."

It's about as common an as you could look for in some town paper, and many residents would never have been thinking it too trivial. I used it, however, because it brought back memories from the past. I used to hunt eggs in the barn, when visiting my uncle. Before I got old I used to know better. I used to be fun to help pack away in the mow by jumping it, along with a cousin of who stomped so much hay he decided to become an lawyer.

Probably I got more pleasant memories from that brief item than anything in the paper that week. It is the why I keep urging our own residents to watch for news-events in their community-somewhere, somebody is in, and that is why we run it.

Rev. Don Rose Returns Home From Trip To Europe

Reverend Don Rose photographed at the railroad station in Devine upon his arrival back home from the Holy Land. With him are Mrs. Rose and their son.

Don Rose, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Devine returned home Friday, June 19th after a three-months journey that took him through twenty two countries in Europe and the Near East where he photographed, in color the locations of Biblical significance.

Reverend Rose made over two thousand such pictures which will be used in teaching Bible history, New Testament backgrounds and related subjects at the First Baptist Church of Devine.

The journey was made in the company of six other Baptist ministers of San Antonio and Corpus Christi, most of the distance being covered in a small German bus which was purchased for that purpose in France. The party drove across Europe into Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey, and on into the Bible lands of Syria, Lebanon, Jordan and Israel. Trips by air were also made to Cairo, Egypt, Baghdad, and Iraq.

Highlight of the tour was a trek into the Arabian desert to the little visited "lost city" of Petra. This strange city carved out of the solid rock was built by an unknown people hundreds of years before Christ. Easily defensible, it served as a caravan taxation center for many years and then when trade routes changed it was lost for fifteen centuries until adventurers rediscovered its beauty in the nineteenth century.

Because of its inaccessibility, few travelers are privileged to visit Petra even today.

Reverend Rose will continue his work at the Baptist Church in Devine where he has resided for the past three years.

Some 75 or 100 people met Brother Rose at the train.

MARY EMMA FINGER KNAPP will soon be leaving the warm climates of the south to move to Goose Bay, Labrador, where JIM has been transferred as C. O. of the American Troops. In Labrador, the temperature ranges from 35 degrees below in winter to 80 degrees above in summer, and the snow starts falling in November. There isn't too much rainfall, about 20 or 30 inches a year, but the snow makes up for the lack of rain. While stationed at Maxwell AFB in Alabama, MARY EMMA had several visits with HELEN BURGIN MCILVOY, who will soon be leaving for Tokyo to join JACK who has been transferred there.

A lot of folks around here are looking forward to a day's celebration with GENE and ALBERT SCHOTT at Riverside Inn at Red Wing. GENE'S birthday is on the 12th of July, and the all-day barbecue is set for July 11th.

Taylor Hurls One-Hit Shut-Out Over Quihi

Braves Triumph By Score of 24-0

Blanton Taylor hurling for the Hondo Braves pitched a one-hit shut-out game against the Quihi Highway 90 nine at the High School Park last Friday night while his team mates unleashed a battery barrage connecting for 19 safe hits which accounted for 24 runs across the plate.

Taylor held the Quihi team hitless until the last of the 9th when Muennink found one of his curves for a base hit, but L. Lindeburg went out to Taylor to Meyer, and J. Hartman popped out to Schweers at second who threw Muennink out at the plate to end the game.

Taylor connected for a home run in the 6th with 2 on base. Schmidt also picked one to his liking in the 6th for a trip home and sending 2 across in front of him.

Taylor whiffed 12 Quihi batsmen and allowed 3 bases on balls.

Quihi used a trio of hurlers, all of whom met with the same trouble from the Hondo bats. Helotes is coming to Hondo on Saturday night.

Little League Underway

Group Will Meet Saturday Morning For Arrangements

Ground work for the organization of a Little League in Hondo will get under way on Saturday morning, June 27th, when there will be a meeting held at 9:00 on the Elementary School Ball diamond for all boys between the ages of 7 and 14.

It has been through the efforts of 175 Junior Policemen with the help of Chief Tucker and Wayne Walter of TAI that Hondo might finally have a Little League team. Mayor O. A. Fly, who was the first to sign up as a sponsor, had his to say, "There is no question but what the Little League program can be one of the most beneficial programs in Hondo for our boys. As a matter of fact, Little League should prove to be one of the state's strongest weapons against juvenile delinquency. Little League is open to every boy within the age limits, and each youngster has an equal chance. There is no discrimination. Little League not only teaches these youths to be competitors with an appreciation of fair play, but it is also an excellent way of getting rid of that excessive energy with which each boy of that age is endowed. The program merits the support of every adult in Hondo, morally if not financially. As mayor, I am vitally interested in the welfare of the boys here in Hondo; as a business man I am vitally interested in the good publicity they can bring to Hondo; and as an individual I'm interested in seeing every boy have a chance to enjoy all the opportunities that are within his reach."

Camp Ezell, columnist for the Bee-Picayune has this to say about the Little League.

"These leagues are saving baseball from a slow death. In the first place the thousands of boys throughout the nation who are playing in these leagues are developing an interest in baseball that probably would remain dormant if it were not for these organizations. In the second place, these leagues are going to be the farms for professional baseball, and many a youngster is being tutored for the jobs under the 'big tent' that will make them outstanding entertainers and will furnish them with substantial incomes."

Wayne Walter in discussing the Little League, has estimated that it will take $75 to cover equipment. This equipment, Walter says, can be pooled and used by all members of the League. This would mean that only about five sponsors are actually needed, costing each sponsor around $15 to "get the show on the road."

As to uniforms, Walter states that the various teams in the League in other places are sponsored by a store or individual which supplies the uniforms.

Hondo's Junior Policemen invite contributions to provide for watermelons for the meeting Saturday. The Junior Policemen who have been the driving force in this organization have pledged their group to work towards the success of the Little League in Hondo. They expect about fifty at the meeting Saturday.

Hondo has always been recognized for its baseball talent, and through such players as Hartung and Hollmig has come into no little fame. Perhaps there are many who might have made great players had their interest been sustained or encouraged. That is the purpose of the Little League. All contributions for the meeting Saturday may be given to Chief Tucker or Wayne Walter at the Air Base, in the Link Trainer Division.

Hartung Belts Two Homers In One Inning

Both Clouts Go For Over 400 Ft.

Clint Hartung, dubbed the Hondo Hammer by his team mates connected for 2 home runs in one inning at Minneapolis a week ago. Hartung slammed the first one 438 feet over the left field fence, and coming to bat again poled the ball 425 feet over a 45-foot barrier in dead centerfield.

It was the first time in the history of Minneapolis Nicolet Park, that goes back to 1896, that such a feat was ever accomplished.

Jack Hartung of Hondo, Clints brother, who dropped in for a surprise visit with Clint, was in the stands on both clouts. According to reports Clint is trying to hold Jack there for the remainder of the season just for luck.

Hartung was the 8th player in the history of the American Association to hit 2 homers in one inning.

According to rumors around the baseball circuit, Hartung may be called back to New York Giants in the near future.

Pay more? What for?

Fifty Years Forward on the American Road

You don't have to pay costly-car prices for costly-car comforts. Ford brings you everything [and we mean everything] you've ever wanted in a car, at a price that's well within your reach! And according to recent surveys, a Ford returns more of its original cost when sold than any other car at any price!

Here are a few of the "Worth More" advantages you'll find in the '53 Ford:

1. A V-8 engine—powerful and smooth!

Ford's famous high-compression V-8 is a leader in quiet, flexible, economical performance. Ford, remember, has built more V-8's than all other makers combined—over 13 million!

2. America's most economical Six engine!

If it's a Six you want, Ford offers you the high-compression, low-friction Mileage Maker... the engine which, with optional Overdrive, won over all other cars, regardless of size or weight, in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run! And it's yours for the same kind of money that buys less modern sixes in other cars.

3. America's finest and most versatile automatic drive!

Fordomatic Drive is the "automatic" which gives you both the get-up-and-go of automatic gears and the smoothness of a fluid torque converter. If you choose Fordomatic, you will find that it makes all your driving easier... more relaxing.

4. Automatic gas savings!

Ford's Automatic Power Pilot (on Six and V-8) meters just the right amount of gas, times ignition precisely, burns fuel evenly and completely. You get full high-compression performance from every drop of gas—regular or premium.

5. America's newest and finest power steering!

Ford's Master-Guide power steering gives you new ease, stability and safety in guiding your car on smooth roads or rough. Your car gains in sure-footed roadability and you expend up to 75% less effort in driving—and parking.

6. Largest choice of models in the low-price field!

Ford alone gives you a choice of 18 different models... a SIX or V-8... Fordomatic, Conventional or Overdrive... the widest variety of body, color and upholstery combinations. You can practically "design" your own Ford!

7. A body that's the style-setter!

Only Ford in its field gives you the advantages of a hull-tight Crestmark Body... the trend-maker in design and beauty. Ford's body is the longest and Ford's trunk, the largest. You enjoy more usable space.

8. New driving conveniences!

Ford's first in its field with such "Worth More" features as easier-acting, suspended pedals that eliminate floor holes... foam rubber cushions on front and rear seats in all models... and convenient Center-Fill Fueling.

9. An automatically controlled ride!

When you Test Drive this Ford notice how the wide front track (widest in the low-price field) tilts out of turns... gives you more level ride. With new "balanced suspension," new spring and shock absorber action and new rubber compression bumpers, road shock in the front end alone is reduced up to 80%.

10. It's worth more when you sell it!

An impartial survey of used car prices proved that Fords return a greater proportion of their original cost than any other cars in America. It's another fact to add to Ford's reputation as the "Worth More" car. But don't take our word for it. Sit in and Test Drive this Ford for yourself. We predict you'll be so before you're in second! It was true last year and it's even truer this year: you can pay more, but you can't buy better than Ford.

EDITORIALS And FEATURES

Anvil Herald will reprint here outstanding essays by students of the Hondo High School Civics Class 8-B. The first on each will be "Why I'm Glad I'm An American".

WHY I'M GLAD I'M AN AMERICAN

We, the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America."

By Connie Schweers

I'm glad I'm an American because of the many privileges I have. I can go where I want to go and when I want to go. Any time I please as long as it is not breaking any laws the voters have made. I can go to the church of my choice, say what I please, and print anything I like as long as it does not hurt another man's name. I can own a car if I like or work for someone else. I can own a home and live wherever I want to. If everything is summed up the reason I'm glad I'm an American is because I'm free to do anything I don't like.

Raul Garcia

I'm glad I'm an American because we have more freedom than anything else or any other countries. We have freedom of speech, freedom of religion, and freedom of the press. Our country is a democracy, and other countries don't have the advantages we have. I'm glad I'm an American because we have public schools, public parks, etc. We can worship as we please, and do as we please.

GENERAL DEVELOPMENT OF PUBLIC LANDS

SO THE PEOPLE MAY KNOW

Political subdivisions have the right to lease public lands for mineral development, provided intention to lease is published in a newspaper.

Statutes provide that "the right to lease such lands shall be exercised by the governing board, the commissioners or commissioners of such political subdivisions which are constituted with the management, control, and supervision of such subdivision, and when in the discretion of the governing body they shall determine that it is advisable to make a lease of any such lands belonging to any district or subdivision, such body shall give notice of intention to lease such lands, describing same, by publication of such notice in some newspaper published in the county, having a general circulation therein, once a week for a period of three (3) consecutive weeks, designating the time and place after such publication where such governing body will receive and consider bids for such leases as such governing body may determine to accept."

See Daniel's book of Texas Publication Laws, pages 137 and 138.

The old time prospector loaded his burro, rounded up his rations, took along his pan and off he went into the mountains looking for his fortune. Sometimes a "strike" was made, but more often the only gain was a good deal of exercise. Nowadays we know that fortunes are earned by planning carefully rather than by just plain hoping. Thrifty, far-sighted people use the tested system of regular savings — ten percent of earnings. Be a modern prospector. Come in today.

SECO PHILOSOPHER IS OUTDONE OVER OFFICIAL'S IDEA ON CUTTING EXPENSES

Dear editor:
I was out here the other day speculating on the economic situation, when a man ain't never quite made ends meet any discussion of times gettin' harder or better is mostly academic, it's like worryin' over what the fare on the first trip to the moon is gonna be, most likely you won't be aboard anyway, when I noticed a puff of wind swirlin' a newspaper along over my pasture and I watched it for a while and noticed it caught on a bobwire fence and later on in the mornin' when the sun went behind a cloud I got up and walked down there and picked it up and got back under my tree and flipped through it.

Over on an inside page I read where some government official was discussin' the same thing I'd been thinkin' about, the economic situation, and his advice was that while there's nothing to get panicky about, things may be tightenin' up a little and he was advisin' people to cut down a little on expenses.
Now cuttin' down on expenses is sound advice, I probably could have thought of it on my own, but what disturbed me about this man's advice was his idea of how you ought to go about cuttin' down on expenses.
"When most men think about cutting expenses, the first thing that crosses their minds is trimmin' the wife's grocery list," he said, and then added, and this is what burned me up: "But most any man can trim his own expenses by working more, and going with less cigarettes, and doing a few less rodeos."

It seems to me that government is goin' too far when one of its employees makes a statement like that. Trimmin' expenses by workin' harder is like goin' to Mayo Brothers to cure an ingrown toenail. Trimmin' expenses may be important, but there ought to be some other way to do it without workin' harder. I'd just as soon let em pile up. In fact, workin' harder ain't necessarily the way to do it anyway. The last year I worked hard, I plowed more land, planted more acres, and wound up with the shortest crop of my life. Most expensive year I ever had.

What I say is, let the government, which really ain't in much shape to be advisin' anybody on how to cut down on expenses, figure out its solution but let me figure out mine. Cuttin' down on smokin' and rodeos ain't necessarily the answer either. Winston Churchill smokes twelve one-dollar cigars a day, and he ain't in a financial strain. Gene Autry attends rodeos nearly every week, some times even seven times a week, and look where he is.

Personally, I don't want to vary my diet, but I would like to see my grocery bill cut a little.
Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Servicemen

CPL. ALFRED A. SCHNEIDER whose wife, Erna, and father, Albert F. Schneider, live in Castroville, recently completed his 8th month in Korea while serving with the 45th Infantry Division. SCHNEIDER, who received his basic training at Camp Chaffee, Ark., entered the Army in January 1952 and is a pole line construction specialist with the division's 45th Signal Company.

2ND LT. MARION FASELER, son of M&M L. F. Faselers, Yancey, has arrived at Smoky Hill Air Force Base, Salina, Kansas, and has been assigned as a pilot with the 25th Bomb Squadron.

Before arriving at Smoky Hill to pilot B-29s he completed a six month tour of duty at Randolph Air Force Base.

Since LT. FASELER was commissioned in the Air Force 25 months ago, he has attended two Air Force schools. He received his basic pilot training at Greenville, AFB, Miss., in 1951, and took advanced pilot training at Reese AFB, Texas, in 1952.

Washington Tells Farm Quotas, Keni Control

Cotton farmers from the Pecos area, here last week, urged Agriculture Department to consider recent heavy increases in cotton planting in Texas when lower acreage quotas are set for 1954. Recent ruling by the Department's solicitor says 1954 quotas must be based on planting of past seven years, not including 1953. Plantings in West Texas and South Plains were much smaller in 1947 and 1948 than in more recent years. The ruling, if it stands, would require growers in these sections to take acreage cut far greater than the national average.

Revision of wheat quota laws will be proposed to bring them more nearly in line with laws covering cotton, tobacco, and peanuts. Congressman W. R. Foy of Waco reports House Agriculture Committee, of which he is a member, is working on revisions.

Hillbilly Music

I recently asked for advice about a request I had received to support a resolution making a National Hillbilly Music Day. A Houston lady writes: "If we must have such a day—let it be February 29. That would save us from such a celebration except every 4 years." Anybody else?

What's Ahead?

Rent control will end July 31 in Borger, Lone Star, Port Lavaca, Rockdale, Big Spring, Hondo, Mineral Wells and Weatherford.

Prospect is brighter for extension of Reciprocal Trade Act without crippling amendments. A portion of the Federal support furnished Allen Military Academy, Bryan and Texas Military Institute, San Antonio, for their ROTC program is scheduled to be withdrawn. Part of the Defense Department's economy drive.

Driftwood, Hays County community famous for its Confederate Soldiers' Reunion, apparently will lose its post office under the Post Office Department's policy of eliminating many small post offices.

Proposed appropriations cut for Federal Petroleum Board will likely be restored. This is the agency that enforces the Connally Hot Oil Act. Charlie Devall, aggressive Texas publisher, wrote in his Kilgore News Herald a strong editorial on the subject, which I had inserted in the Congressional Record.

Add Salt To Help Prevent Stomach Cramps

AUSTIN—If your work is such that it causes excessive perspiration, add a pinch of ordinary table salt to each drink of water you take to help prevent heat cramps. This is advised by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, to prevent a possible increase in the number of heat victims as the Texas thermometer hits 95 degrees and above.

Laborers, mechanics, farmers and white collar workers whose work causes them to sweat profusely, are in danger of having their body salt content become deficient with resulting heat cramps or heat fag. Salt is a prominent constituent of sweat; the body may lose as high as 40 to 50 grams of salt during hot days.

In industry, a method preventing heat cramps is to take a tablet of pure salt or a mixture of salt and dextrose with each drink of water. Workmen whose duties require muscular exertion should be especially careful to add more than the usual amount of salt to what they eat and drink.

Salt deficiency may be prevented by taking salt in various ways. Where prepared tablets are not available, table salt may be added to each drink of water. Milk is a source of salt and will help to make up for the deficiency caused by sweating. Alcoholic drinks should be avoided.

Heat cramp is characterized by pains (cramps) in the abdominal region, headache, and in severe cases, by nausea and vomiting. The body temperature remains about normal, likewise the pulse rate. Body salt losses occur without the knowledge of the individual until there is a deficiency; then the abdominal muscles begin to cramp.

JOHN T. FLYNN SPEAKING:

In my last broadcast I told you about the strange movement which has sprung up in Washington to wipe out certain great guarantees of freedom in our American Constitution. I described for you the contention now being made that the President of the United States, with the consent of the Senate, can make a treaty which can alter anything in the Constitution of the United States—can take powers from the Congress and give them to the President, can take them from the states and give them to the federal government, and even liquidate our great Bill of Rights. All the President has to do is to enter into a treaty with England or France or any other country, making changes in our Constitution, and if two-thirds of the Senate approve it this becomes the law of the land, superseding the Constitution.

I called attention to the fact that John Foster Dulles, Secretary of State, endorses this theory and is opposed to a proposed amendment to the Constitution which will repudiate this interpretation of our fundamental law. Senator Bricker of Ohio has offered an amendment to the Constitution and the American Bar Association has collaborated with Senator Bricker in a joint amendment which will repudiate this infamous attempt to weaken the very fundamental law of the American government.

Now the question arises, why does Mr. Dulles oppose the Bricker amendment? What scheme has he got in mind? What plan is he cooking up for the United States in the world which he hopes to do by means of a treaty with some foreign power which will override the Constitution of the United States? Let me be clear. I am not involving the President in this. This seems to be an enterprise by John Foster Dulles, seconded by Herbert Brownell, the Attorney General of the United States. I cannot believe the other members of the President's cabinet will support this incredible enterprise and this opposition to the Bricker amendment, which would protect us from it.

We ended last January the career of Dean Acheson as Secretary of State and that long and strange series of policies which seemed to run in the interest of Communist China and of Moscow. Apparently we have not yet gotten all of the pro-Communist elements out of the State Department. However, we now run into a new collection of dangers under Mr. Dulles. Just as the State Department under Acheson, for some unintelligible reason, played the game of Russia, now the State Department under Dulles seems to be playing the game of another country—when all the time what we need is a State Department that will play the game of the United States of America.

To understand this, we have to go back to last year. Just a year ago Mr. Dulles warned the American Bar Association that the President and Senate could make a treaty overriding the Constitution of the United States and could make agreements which would cut across the rights of the American people given by the Constitutional Bill of Rights itself. In other words, that treaty law supersedes the Constitution of the United States. Put another way, the President, the Senate and the Congress cannot make a law in violation of the Constitution, but the President and the Senate acting with Great Britain can. That was in April, 1952, when Mr. Dulles gave that warning.

Then in November, 1952—only 7 months later—the Congress of the Atlantic Union Committee met in Buffalo. The chief object of the Atlantic Union Committee is to bring the United States and Great Britain, plus France and some of the smaller Atlantic countries, together into a federal union. The United States is a federal union—it is a union of 48 sovereign states. The Atlantic union wishes to form a federal union like this composed of the United States, England, France, Canada and Belgium and a few smaller countries if they want to come in. In other words, it is a plan to bring the United States and the British Empire together in a sovereign union.

Of course, you may say this sounds like a dream—and a crackpot's dream at that. But do not delude yourselves. You would be amazed at the long list, covering pages of small print, of the names of leading Americans—some top business men, university presidents, political leaders, eminent lawyers and judges—who are members of this. The head of it is Owen J. Roberts, retired Supreme Court Justice. The father of this plan is Clarence K. Streit. Clarence Streit is a Rhodes Scholar and one of the leaders in the movement called Union Now—which means Union of the British Empire and the United States.

What do they mean by this Union? November 22nd of last year, Justice Roberts at Buffalo defined it. He said it must be built on a (1) common citizenship, (2) common economic and military policies, (3) a common currency, and (4) a free exchange of goods and services among the members of the union. Now I come to the interesting fact. While this gathering was in session in Buffalo, John Foster Dulles sent them a congratulatory message expressing his best wishes for their meeting. He was not yet Secretary of State—President Eisenhower was not inaugurated until January—but 3 days before Dulles sent this message, President Eisenhower had announced that Dulles would be Secretary of State.

For a long time, this scheme has been a kind of faraway vision, but at this meeting Clarence K. Streit, father of the Atlantic Union, announced—and I quote him—"If the Committee acts effectively it may obtain results in a short time." What did he mean by this? How in heaven's name could the United States government agree to enter into a super-government—an over-all government which would include the United States, England and France? It could not possibly be done by treaty because to make such a government effective the United States would have to agree to delegate to another super-government powers which are given to it by the Constitution, and without any authority to delegate these powers to some other foreign government.

The leaders of this movement always had this grave—practically insuperable obstacle—to their dreams—namely the Constitution of the United States. But there was a school of thought which held that under the Constitution the President could enter into a treaty which would be in violation of all the other provisions of the Constitution. Back in April 1952, John Foster Dulles announced that theory and seemed to be opposed to that theory and added (See DAVIS, Page 8-A)

Probable Cause Of Pinkeye Found In Cattle

Research veterinarians in Texas believe they may have discovered the germ which causes pinkeye in cattle.

Dr. F. C. Jackson of Angleton, Texas, reported this week in the American Journal of Veterinary Research that bacteria called "Hemophilus bovis" apparently cause the disease.

The bacteria were found in infected eyes of cattle in every outbreak of pinkeye studied, but never were isolated from the eyes of normal cattle.

Pinkeye is a highly contagious cattle disease which usually flares up during the summer months, when it is transmitted by the common housefly. Other insects also may be involved in transmission.

The disease is of "vast economic importance" to cattle industry, he said, because pinkeye can cause permanent eyesight damage, reduce milk production, and cause unthriftiness in young calves.

Cattle infected with pinkeye have constantly watering eyes and are sensitive to light. The disease can be corrected by treatment, Dr. Jackson said, but repeated treatments are necessary to effect a cure.

By Ruth Curry Lawler
CASTROVILLE—The water in the Medina River is rapidly decreasing. There is none running over the Dam at Castroville and farmers in the section near LaCoste are needing water desperately.

Special prayers for rain are being offered each evening this week at the St. Louis Church at 7:30 P. M.

A home economist expert from Dallas will demonstrate how to cook with a Dutch oven and save gas. Mrs. Strayhorn, Medina County Demonstration Agent, will assist her. A dinner will be prepared, cooked and then served to those attending the school, and over 200 prizes will be given away.

By Mrs. Amos Finger

D'HANIS—Miss Hulda Nester will leave Friday for Munith, Mich., where she will be the guest of Mrs. L. N. Taft for a few weeks. Mrs. Taft is the former Miss Clara Zuercher. Miss Nester will drive as far as Indianapolis, Ind., with M&M Louis Schmidli, who have been visiting here. Mrs. Oscar Rothe, Mrs. O. J. Reinhart, and Mrs. W. A. Nehr accompanied by Mrs. Charles Finger of Hondo spent Thursday in SA with their sister, Mrs. Annie Klasing.

M&M Homer Floerke and children of Beeville are guests in the home of M. A. Zinsmeyer.

Guests of M&M Frank Survick last weekend were M&M Louis Ernst and her sisters, Miss Grace Qualls of SA and Mrs. H. W. Mick of Kansas. They spent Sunday at Garner Park and Uvalde.

Mrs. E. L. Brod has returned home after a four weeks visit with her grandchildren, M&M O. J. Wheat and baby son of Uvalde.

BEWARE OF BLASTING CAPS

The United States Post Office Department and Bureau of Mines today joined forces in the nationwide safety campaign warning boys and girls, "Don't touch a blasting cap."

Posters picturing four common types of blasting caps were distributed for display in 41,000 United States post offices. The posters warn "Don't touch blasting caps," and tell boys and girls "If you find a cap don't touch it. Tell a policeman about it."

"Scores of children are hurt every year," he said. "And every injury was needless. The pity of it is that many of the children were only bystanders when another child foolishly picked up a blasting cap."

"A blasting cap is a small metal cylinder and when it explodes, bits of metal fly in all directions. They can tear off a finger, a hand or foot, blind a person for life, or even kill outright. Everyone who handles a blasting cap should know that if he doesn't carefully account for every one, it might honor him on Father's Day.

M&M John Rieber, M&M Louis Lutz and son, and Mrs. Walter Burrell and children were in Knippa Sunday where they attended the silver wedding observance of M&M Fritz Thane.

Mrs. John L. Rothe of SA spent Thursday with Mrs. H. C. Rothe.

● This advertisement is the third in a special series which began over a year ago, and which is designed to give you, as a prospective buyer, detailed and helpful information. We'd be happy to have your comments about this type of advertising.

This is the 1953 Chevrolet Bel Air 4-Door Sedan. It's one of 16 Chevrolet models in 3 series, which add up to the widest choice in the low-price field.

Some Chevrolet advantages worth considering when you're ready to choose a car...

Next to a new house, a car is probably your most important purchase. Here are some facts to help you make up your mind about which make to buy.

Don't you agree that it's well worthwhile to weigh all the factors carefully before you buy any new car? Let's consider the major reasons why people choose one make over another and see how the 1953 Chevrolet stands in those respects.

Styling You Can Stay Proud Of

Styling, of course, is a matter of personal taste. Because we think Chevrolet is the best-looking car in its field, doesn't necessarily mean you'll think so, too. But we can tell you that the majority of our showroom visitors prefer Chevrolet styling and compare its appearance most favorably with cars costing a great deal more.

And you might consider this: Chevrolet styling is the newest in its field. It's the kind of styling that stays new, too. For it is based, not on fads or extremes, but on the fundamentals of good, modern design.

The One Automobile Body Almost Everybody Knows

It's not really surprising that so many people prefer Chevrolet's appearance. For Chevrolet is the only low-priced car with Body by Fisher. And Fisher, as you know, is the only automobile body manufacturer with a world-wide reputation for styling, craftsmanship and quality.

The Many Benefits of High-Compression Power

When you drive a new Chevrolet (and we hope you'll do that soon), you'll notice these things: faster acceleration from a standing start; greater passing ability in traffic and on the highway; the new ease with which you climb steep hills.

These are just some of the benefits of Chevrolet's new high-compression power. In gearshift models, there is an advanced 108-h.p. "Thrifty-King" engine with a 7.1 to 1 compression ratio. Teamed with the new Powerglide automatic transmission* is an entirely new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine with 7.5 to 1 compression ratio. It is the most powerful engine in Chevrolet's field.

A Great Gain in Gasoline Economy

Along with remarkable new performance, Chevrolet's advanced engines give you far greater gasoline mileage. In fact, this year marks the most important gain in economy in Chevrolet history. And that includes substantial savings on over-all upkeep, as well as on gasoline.

New Getaway in the New Powerglide*

The new Powerglide automatically drops into "Low" range for starting and for passing in city traffic. Then, as you glide along, it slips smoothly and almost imperceptibly into cruising range. The results are much faster and more positive acceleration, and much lower fuel consumption.

The First Power Steering in a Low-Priced Car

This year's Chevrolet is the only car in its field to offer you the extra ease and convenience of Power Steering, optional at extra cost. With it, you can spin the wheel with the strength of one finger. You can see-saw in and out of tight parking places without the slightest strain. You get an additional cushion against road shocks and jars. Driving is easier, safer.

A Smoother and a Safer Ride

Chevrolet is the heaviest low-priced car. Model for model, a Chevrolet will weigh as much as 200 pounds more than the other makes. You often hear people say they buy high-priced cars because they're heavier, hold the road better and ride better. Well, isn't it logical, then, that Chevrolet's extra weight (which comes from extra strength of body and frame) would result in a better ride?

Chevrolet is the Lowest-Priced Line

Certainly, price is one of the most important factors of all. We're glad to be able to tell you that Chevrolet is the lowest-priced line in its field.

Now, you might well ask, "How can Chevrolet offer me more and still cost less?" There is a simple, logical answer to that.

Remember that Chevrolet builds more cars than any other manufacturer. Chevrolet, along with General Motors, has greater facilities for research, for engineering and production. So, isn't it reasonable that these greater facilities bring manufacturing advantages and economies which Chevrolet can pass on to you in terms of higher quality at lower price?

An Endorsement Given No Other Car

Again this year, more people are buying Chevrolets than any other car. Obviously that wouldn't be true unless people liked Chevrolet better. Unless Chevrolet offered more things people want—more value.

So, when you're ready to choose your new car, wouldn't you agree that Chevrolet merits your careful consideration? We welcome your visit at any time, so that you can look the car over yourself and try it out on the road.

*Combination of 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine and Powerglide automatic transmission, optional on "Two-Ten" and Bel Air models at extra cost.

MORE PEOPLE BUY CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER CAR!

Lloyd Bentsen Writes

WASHINGTON — There is a lot of difference between the U. S. Steel Corp., a cow and a cotton field — but when the first raises prices, the last two feel it.

The pulse of South Texas' economy is cattle and agriculture—and upswep steel prices are not helping to make that economical backbone any stiffer. Steel goes up $4 per ton. Cattle sells on the San Antonio market for as little as three cents a pound. Cotton quotas are a cinch for next year and the general level of other farm commodities continues to skid.

Results are obvious. The tractor and other mechanized farm equipment the farmer buys will remain high. His income decreases—and the farmer is caught in the squeeze. Those not directly in the farming business may minimize his problem—but it's axiomatic that in a basically agricultural economy the doctor, lawyer, merchant and chief are all eventually affected by the size of the farmer's pocketbook.

Disaster Program

In a world fraught with daily crises, the Texas' farmers and ranchers compound drought and low prices problems are receiving Congressional attention.

Your Congressman has joined with others here to work out some method of helping the farmer and the rancher get back in step with the economy. These are some of the initial steps we have recommended to the present administration:

(1) Revise the law so that the Farmers' Home Administration can participate in refinancing loans. This means the FHA would finance 25 to 33 and one-third percent of a lending institution loan to a farmer or rancher on a long-term basis. This would give them a chance to work out their difficulties. It would stop sacrifice sales of land and cattle to meet obligations. These sales are further depressing prices.

(2) We have requested the administration to sell surplus cotton seed meal to ranchers at lower prices. The surplus stock is being sold below market levels to foreign countries—we certainly should be able to buy it from our government as cheaply as foreigners. These stocks are expected to deteriorate in quality soon.

(3) We have recommended that the government increase purchases of depressed farm and ranch products for the school lunch program.

Your Congressman is meeting with President Eisenhower next week to urge authorization for this program.

Disaster Area

The entire 15th Congressional district is a disaster area and Farmers' Home Administration loans are available to drought-stricken farmers until the end of this calendar year. This designation includes the counties of Cameron, Willacy, Hidalgo, Starr, Zapata, Webb, Dimmit, Maverick, Zavala, Frio, LaSalle, Jim Hogg and Medina.

Unless there is a radical improvement in conditions your Congressman will ask the Secretary of Agriculture again to extend the loan program when it expires on December 31, 1953.

Bad Weather

While weather conditions are serious, there's always the lighter side. Today's light side was in a letter from a friend at home who said he was mighty glad to see that the Congress had finally ordered quite a cut in spending on the Weather Bureau because when you think of all these millions spent on the weather bureau and the weather gets steadily worse it's terrible!

Foreign Aid

The House Foreign Affairs committee has asked that $5 billion be appropriated to assist foreign countries. Almost $12 billion is around unspent for this purpose from previous appropriations. Your Congressman will vote for a substantial cut in these funds.

Farm Bill

Senate last week passed the agriculture appropriations bill, voting $716,779,000 for the Agriculture Department for the 1954 fiscal year. That's about $20,500,000 below appropriations for the current year.

The bill provides $195,000,000 for payments to farmers carrying out soil conservation practices. The Administration had asked for $140,000,000 for this purpose.

We were able to get the lending authority of the REA for the year 1954 increased from 30 million dollars—as provided in the House bill—to 45 million. Lending authority for rural telephones was raised to 67 million from the 50 million provided in the House measure. These sums will be used only for loans, of course, and the co-ops have an excellent record of repayment.

FLETCHER DAVIS BROADCASTS

(Continued from Editorial Page) mitted that he had tried his hand at drafting an amendment to the Constitution which would put an end to it. But by November, 1952 - 7 months later - he had been named Secretary of State and was wishing godspeed to the followers of Clarence Streit and the Atlantic Union. His first act as Secretary of State-designate was a telegram of congratulation and good wishes to the Atlantic Union crowd in Buffalo. And now, 5 months later, as Secretary of State, we see him in action. Senator Bricker and over 60 members of the United States Senate, gravely disturbed at this contention that the President and the Senate can by treaty alter the Constitution of the United States, have proposed an amendment which will end that dangerous theory forever. And now the first one to object to it is Mr. John Foster Dulles. What did Clarence Streit in Buffalo mean last November when he said that if they played their cards right they could put their Atlantic Union plan over sooner than anyone dreamed?

There are before President Eisenhower so many grave and important tasks in setting straight our badly battered American economic and political system. It is unfortunate that this man Dulles should be keeping the President in hot water. His first bad break was his move to prevent repudiation of the Yalta agreements. His second was his incredible approval of John Carter Vinpower and compression ratio ever to power a Buick SPECIAL.

The truth is, the instant you feel this big, broad, thrill-charged beauty in motion, you'll know it for a performance automobile—nimble and eager, responsive as quicksilver.

But exhilarating action is just part of the story here.

There's spacious roominess. There's a magnificent ride. There's superb handling ease. And to cap it all, this Buick delivers for little more than the "low-priced" cars. Why not drop in on us this week? We'll be mighty proud to have you try the greatest Buick SPECIAL yet built.

*Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.
